ProVision completes center's renovations

March 09, 2009

BALDWYN — ProVisions, LLC, has completed renovations of the 279,000-square-foot Baldwin Business Center, and the complex is now on the market for sale or lease.

"We have invested over $5 million to acquire, renovate and provide state-of-the-art technology within the Baldwin Business Center," said Murray Wikol, president and CEO of Bingham Farms, Mich.-based ProVisions, which acquired the center approximately one year ago."

The Baldwin Business Center offers warehouse, manufacturing and distribution capabilities. Located on 27 acres within the Harry A. Martin North Lee Industrial Complex adjacent to U.S. 45, its neighbors include Toyota Auto Body Company, Ltd., Hancock Fabrics, Norbord Inc., Advanced Innovations, Ltd., and Fairfield Industries.
